Dear Mr. Munno:

On 20 May 2015, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 20 May 2015 correspondence indicating your intent to appeal our final determination in the referenced Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) case.

Your initial request was denied for processing. Therefore, we did not extend you administrative appeal rights and are declining to process an appeal for you. Under the rules outlined in Part 1900 of Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1900.42, FOIA requesters have the right to appeal the denial of access to a requested record or portions thereof, a no records located response, and the denial of a fee waiver. We regret that we cannot be of further assistance to you.

As the Information and Privacy Coordinator, I am the CIA official responsible for this determination.

Sincerely,
